THE PLEDGE TO THE FLAG
I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Since this 1943 Owl is honoring four branches of the Armed Forces of the United States, we have chosen as our introductory page four graduates of Paris High School representing each of the divisions. Lieutenant (j. g.) Ralph Webb of the Navy, Lieutenant Robert C. Bearden of the Air Corps, Lieutenant James S. Griffin of the Army, and Lieutenant W. Kyle Gillespie of the Marines are four of the many graduates whom we honor and admire for the job they are carrying on for us. May they achieve this victory for which we work and for which they fight.

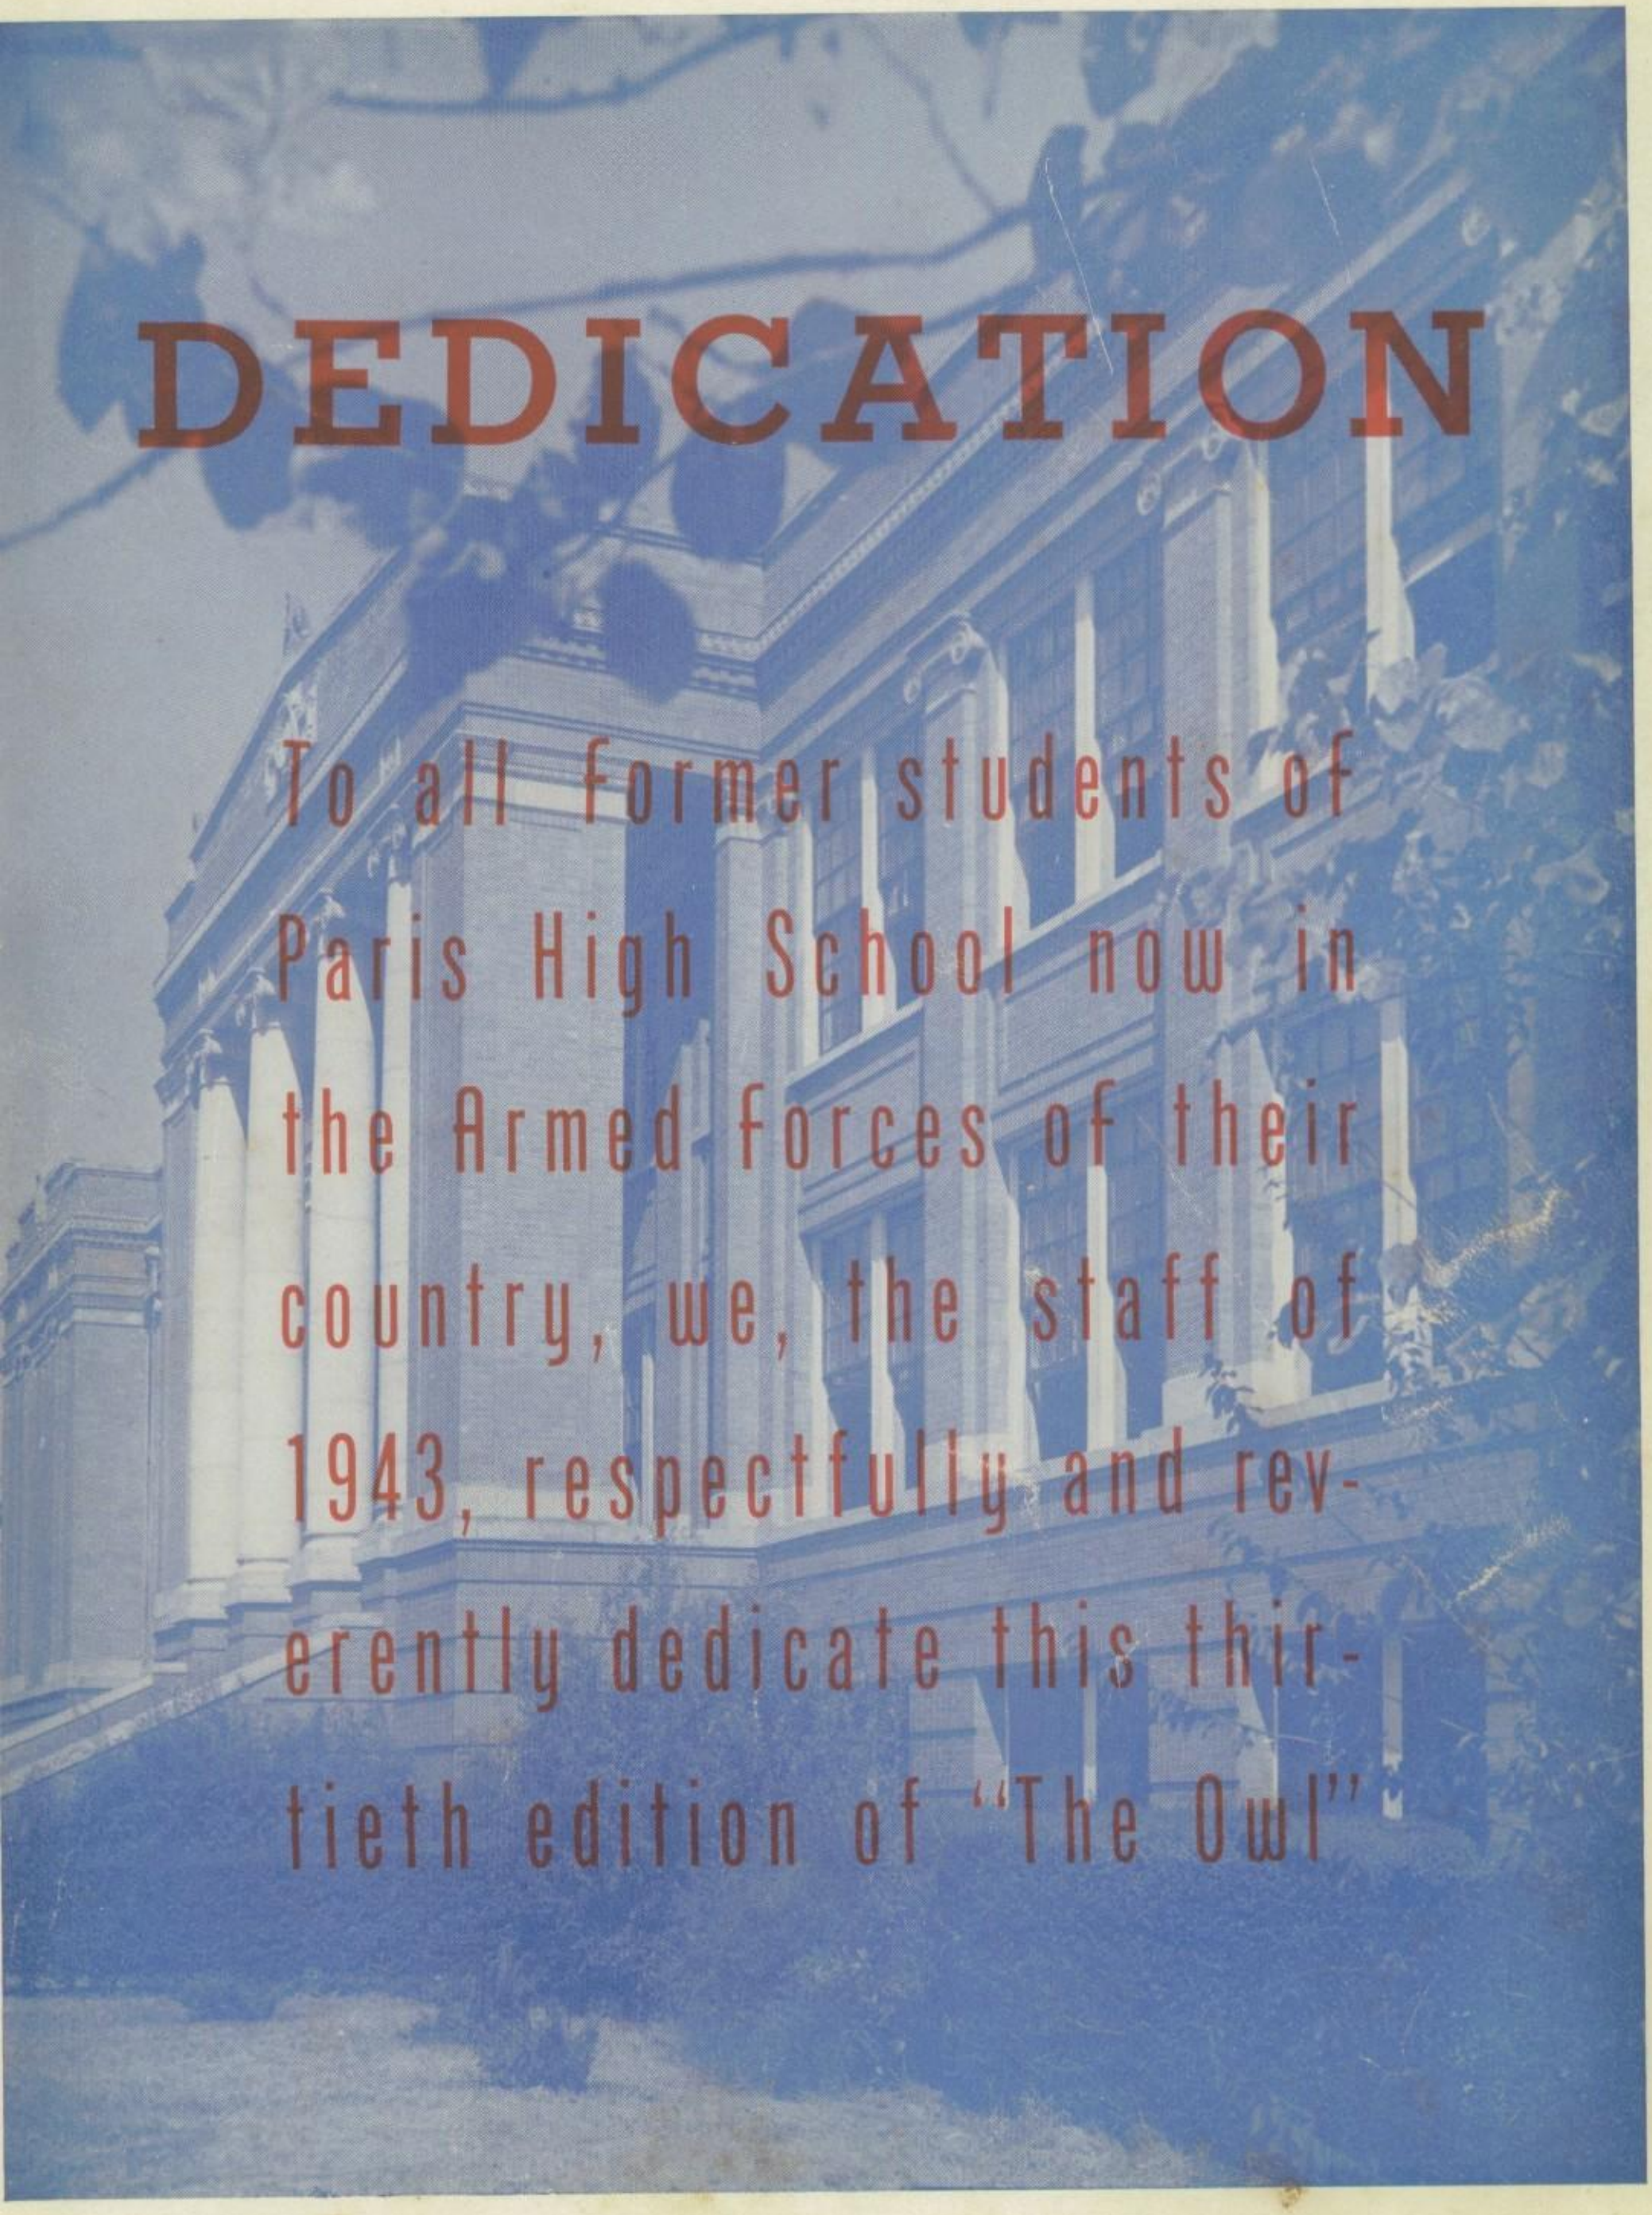
Editor's Note

This is your War Owl of 1943—a book prepared during times when small things like high school publications seem relatively unimportant. We feel, however, that this 1943 Owl will be a prized possession of all students; for it is destined to become an album in future years to take you back to the hectic war years of '42 and '43—with pictures and names of high school friends whom you may never see again.

In planning The 1943 Owl, we interspersed patriotism with the seasons. We have done our utmost to reflect the surging spirit of the students of Paris High School. Some of our students will go on to fame and glory; some to oblivion. Here, within the pages of this book, both are forever caught and held in the glorious, golden pattern of the school.

The 1943 Owl is now in your hands—let it speak for itself.



DEDICATION

To all former students of Paris High School now in the Armed forces of their country, we, the staff of 1943, respectfully and reverently dedicate this thirtieth edition of "The Owl"

"Caisson Song"

Over hill, over dale,
We have hit the dusty trail,
And those caissons go rolling
along.
"Counter march! Right about!"
Hear those wagon soldiers shout,
While those caissons go rolling
along.

For it's "Hi! Hi! Hee!" in the Field Artillery,
Call off your numbers loud and strong,
And where e'er we go
You will always know
That those caissons are rolling
along.
(Keep 'em rolling)
That those caissons are rolling
along,
For it's long.

School Board

President.....Henry P. Mayer Vice-President.....R. O. Murphy
Secretary.....J. C. Hathaway

Mr. Henry P. Mayer, president of the board, has served as a member for over thirty-seven years and as its president for the past sixteen years. Vice-president R. O. Murphy has rendered his services for the past fifteen years, and Mr. J. C. Hathaway, the secretary, has served for ten years. Other members include Dr. L. B. Stephens, Mr. J. B. Griffith, Mr. O. W. Boswell, and Mr. Jess B. Alford.

Each of these men is appreciated and respected by the student body, faculty, and voters for his time and resources given so willingly in the promotion of a better school system.

Principal and Superintendent

Here we see Superintendent A. H. Chamness and Principal Thomas S. Justiss as the staff photographer snapped them during one of their many conferences concerning the welfare of the students.

Both of these executives are faced with the dual task of keeping the majority of our students on the straight and narrow path and at the same time promoting understanding between faculty and students. Each has fulfilled his duty to the satisfaction of both groups.

Sooner or later every student comes under their influence, and the indelible stamp of their character goes on each one. As the legion of their friends increases with the passing years, so rises the fame and fortune of Paris High School.

Mr. Chamness . . .

To the Seniors of 1943:

The Senior Class of 1943 is unique in the history of Paris High School in that many of its members will be called upon soon to enter some branch of the Armed Forces of our country. This will be a great disappointment to many of you, for you will be unable to realize a life's ambition to enter college soon after graduation to continue your education. This, it seems, is impossible now, for we are in war fighting for our very existence against powerful and ruthless enemies bent on our complete subjugation. Therefore, it is necessary for every one of us to assist in every way we can to bring about their complete defeat.

Although it is a great disappointment not to be able to do the things you have planned to do, let me admonish you not to be discouraged but to enter into the service of your country in the capacity for which you are best suited; render the best service of which you are capable; and when victorious peace is again established in our land, return to a grateful people determined to give to peacetime America the best that is in you to give.

Sincerely yours,

A. H. CHAMNESS

. . . Mr. Justiss

To the Seniors of 1943:

You are graduating from high school at the most critical time in the history of our country. Never has so heavy a mantle of responsibility hung upon the shoulders of any people as that which clothes us in America today. Never has our supreme task been so clearly defined. If our civilization is to be preserved, we must first of all win this war and then formulate a peace which shall forever guarantee to us and succeeding generations those unalienable rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, which we as American people cherish so much. This is no mean responsibility; it is no simple task. It calls for the best you have; and if it is to be achieved, all of us must, as did our fathers of old, pledge anew our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor to this end. This I know you will do; and as you leave this institution to assume, in a short while, your role in this gigantic undertaking, may you be sustained through the realization that the cause in which you are engaged is most worthy and honorable.

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS S. JUSTISS

Our Preparation For The Duration . . .

There are fifty-four and one-half affiliated credits in the curriculum of our school. Included in these credits is most any subject that is needed to fulfill the requirements for selecting the numerous vocations desired by the students.

Four years of English are required before a pupil is graduated from our school. Half of the semester is devoted to literature, and half, to grammar; written and oral composition is also included in this course. For their choice the students have four years of Latin, two years of German, and two years of Spanish.

Included in our science department are general science, biology, chemistry, physics, and aeronautics, the latter being a new subject offered for boys.

The required subjects which compose our mathematics department are general mathematics, algebra, and plane geometry for the first three years respectively. A half-year of trigonometry, a half-year of solid geometry, and a whole year of senior algebra are the students' electives. Each year the math department gives awards to the students having an average of ninety-five or above and no grade below ninety. A felt letter is given the first year; a bronze letter, the second year; a silver letter, the third year; and a gold letter, the fourth year.

Our social science department is made up of numerous subjects, such as early European history, American history, Texas history, civics, and economics. Two years of history are required, including American history and one elective.

To those interested in business administration a varied course is offered, including typing, stenography, general business training, and bookkeeping.

A wide variety of courses are available in the industrial arts department. These include liberal arts, mechanical drawing, manual training, and laboratory of industries.

The speech department gives its members practical experience in the interpreting and producing of outstanding plays; it also promotes interest in the dramatic activities of the school.

Another new course in the curriculum of our school is Bible, which is taught by the various ministers of our city.

Vocational agriculture is not only useful but also interesting to the boys who wish to study the various phases of modern farming. In our foods and clothing classes the future homemakers are given the very best training possible.

Composing our music department are the band, Choral Club, and orchestra. Each gives the student a full credit for every year which he has participated.

The physical education instructors have added to the curriculum of our school by planning a well-rounded athletic program for both girls and boys.

Thus you see the numerous subjects studied by the students of Paris High School to aid them in whatever vocation they may choose; however, these subjects would mean little to the pupils if it were not for the competent faculty members provided by the school board.

Football Queens

Bonnie Ruth Majors

Valria Word

Celia Smith

Each member of this trio justly deserves the honor bestowed upon her by the football team. All three have been active in extra-curricular activities during their four years in high school. Each is noted for her exuberance, loyalty, and school spirit. In the senior year Bonnie Ruth was Business Manager of The Owl and Head Cheer Leader; Valria was Associate Editor of The Owl; and, Celia served as Secretary of the X-Cello Club. These activities were highlighted when the boys chose them as football queens.

Appreciation Queen

Queen: Mary Dee Lattimore

Escorts: Jimmy Miles
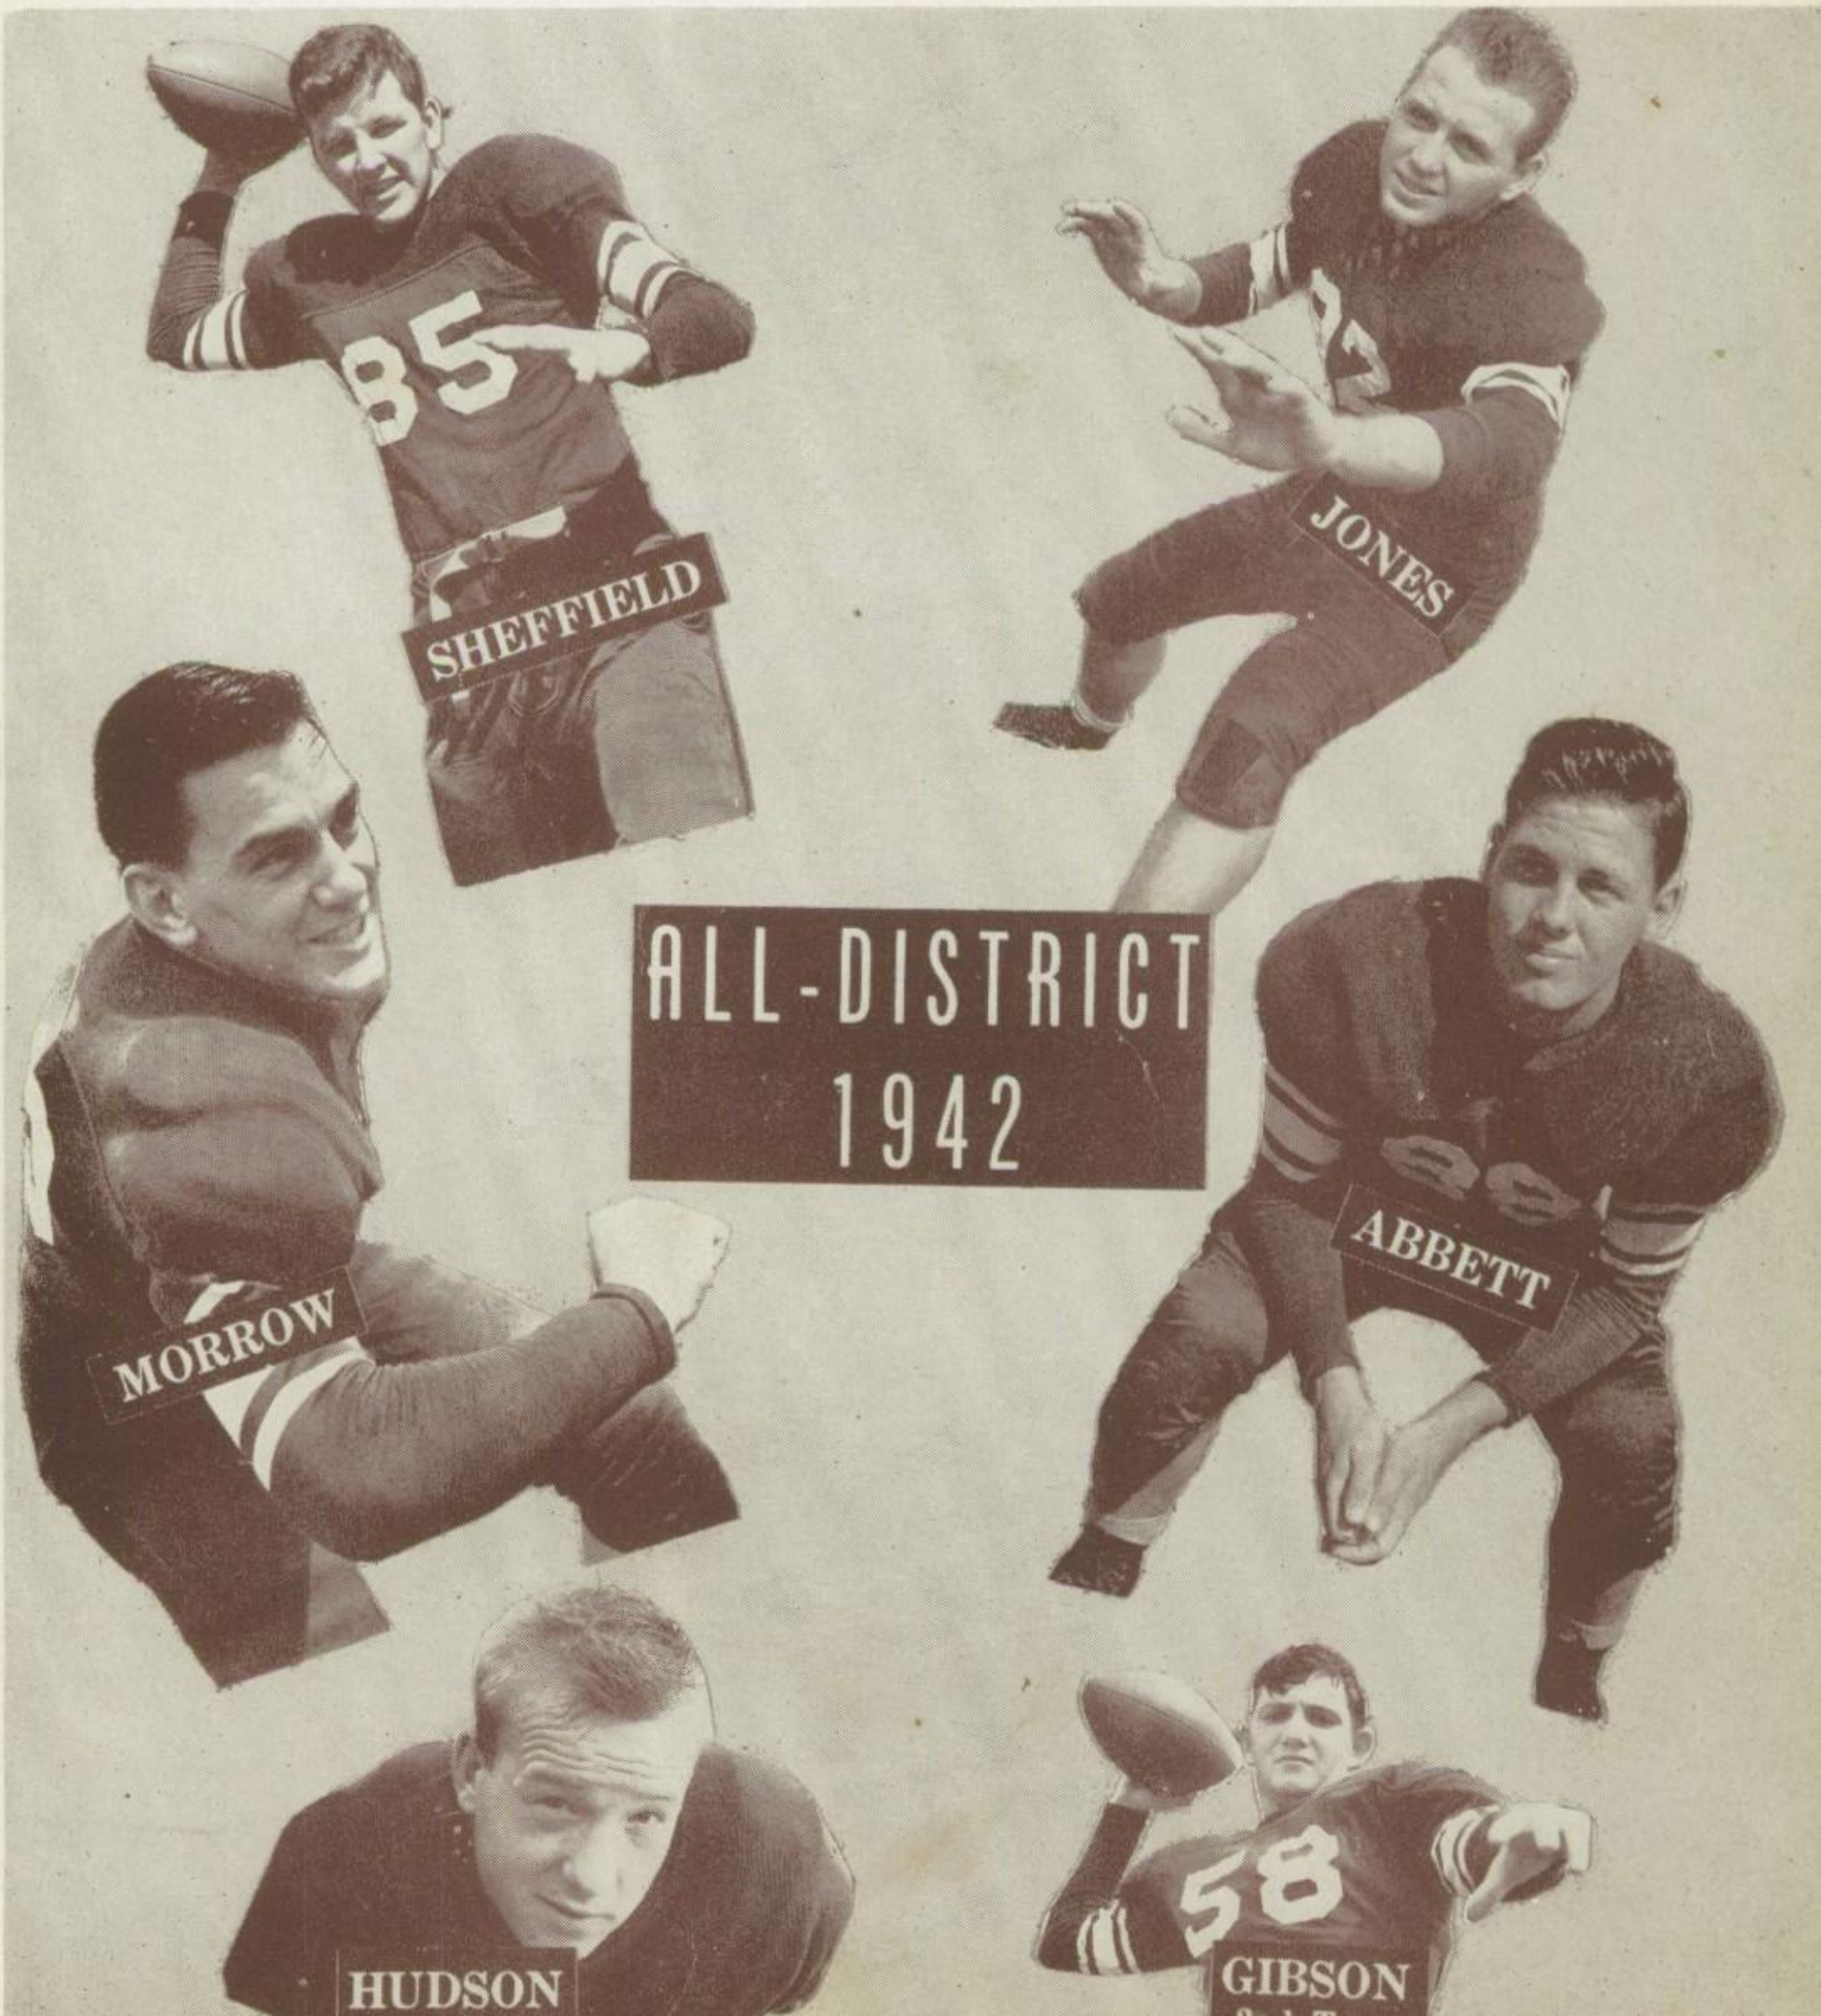
Paul Parham

Chosen by the Sophomore Class to reign as queen of Wildcat Appreciation Night, Mary Dee was crowned during half-time at the Paris-Texarkana football game by Mr. Justiss. Leading in the sale of tickets to this game, the Sophomore Class had the privilege of electing the queen. Jimmy and Paul, her escorts, were her own personal choice.

. . . Gridiron Aces

For the second consecutive year a Wildcat received the honor of being placed on the All-State team. The Wildcat so honored this year was Co-Captain Bucky Sheffield, our hard-running tailback. This is Bucky's fourth year as a regular and the third year that he has rated the All-District team. Bucky has supplied the Wildcat machine with most of its power for the last two years from the fullback position and in this past season came into his own as one of the leading tailbacks of the state. Due to his all-round ability, Sheffield played end on the defense, and it was at this position that he made the All-State eleven for 1942. This 6 foot, 3 inch, 180-pound youngster will long be remembered by all Wildcat rooters and by his teammates for his big smiles, his sportsmanlike tactics, and his desire to run over 'em rather than around 'em. Dicky Jones and Luke Abbett were placed on the All-State honorable mention list.



Cats Begin To Roll . . .

Paris 25 Marshall 0

The defending champions of District 5AA opened their 1942 season in splendid style by rolling over the Marshall Mavericks. Some 3500 persons saw the Wildcats put on an impressive display of power, gaining a total of 434 yards. The Wildcats received the opening kickoff and marched 95 yards to score, with big Bucky Sheffield driving over from the one. Early in the second period J. C. Coker took a 19-yard pass from Sheffield for the second score. Later in this period Red Hudson took a punt handoff and raced 50 yards for another score. The last tally came on a 65-yard march with Sheffield going the last 14 yards. This game showed the Wildcats to have a powerful and versatile backfield working behind a hard, fast-charging line.

Paris 13 Gladewater 0

In the season's second game the Paris Powerhouse ran into a surprisingly strong Gladewater eleven. With their vaunted running attack stopped most of the game, the Wildcats turned to the air for their victory. A first quarter Wildcat drive was stopped on Gladewater's one-yard line, and a touchdown pass was called back early in the second quarter. The pay-off came on a 21-yard pass, Sheffield to Gibson. The game then turned into a defensive struggle until late in the fourth quarter when Sheffield sparked a forty-three-yard drive for the Wildcat's final score.

. . . Settling Old Scores

Paris 35 Greenville 0

In this game the Wildcats matched their power against the tricky magic of their ancient rivals, the Greenville Lions. From the opening kickoff until the final whistle, the Cats showed complete mastery over their lighter opponents. The first score came as a result of a 70-yard drive, Sheffield going the last 36 yards off tackle. Coker scored next at the end of a 62-yard drive. In the second half Sheffield scored the third touchdown and soon after pitched a 23-yard pass to Abbett in the end zone. The place-kicking of the Wildcats was perfect with Morrow kicking three and Jones two. The game was sweet revenge for all Wildcat rooters for the lopsided scores that Greenville once ran up on us.

Paris 45 Sherman 6

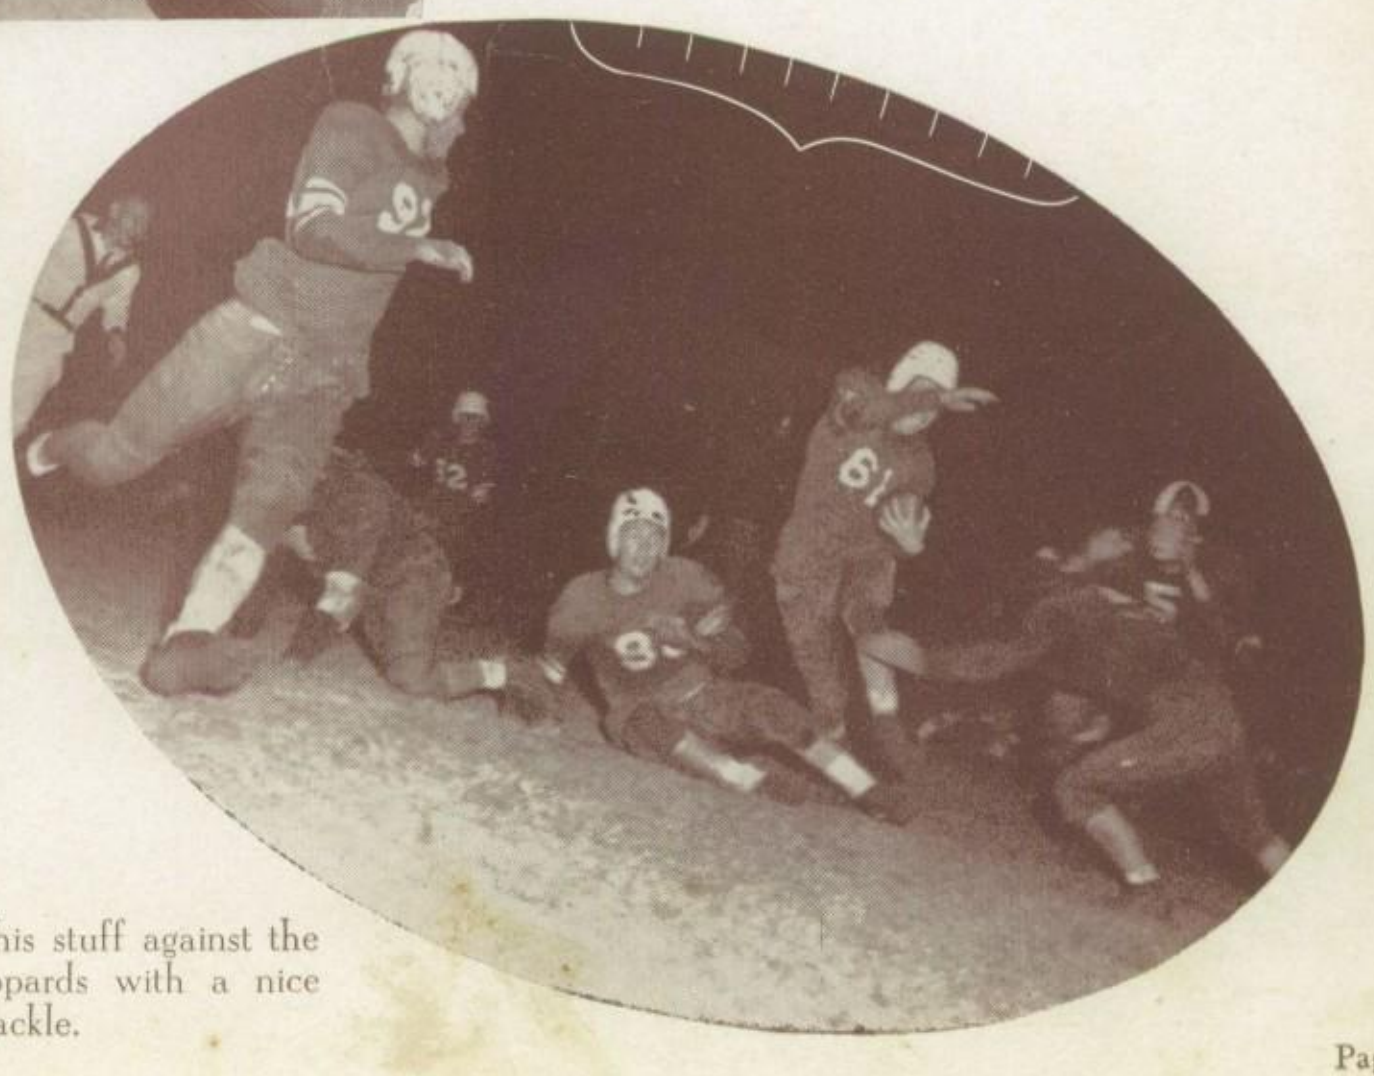
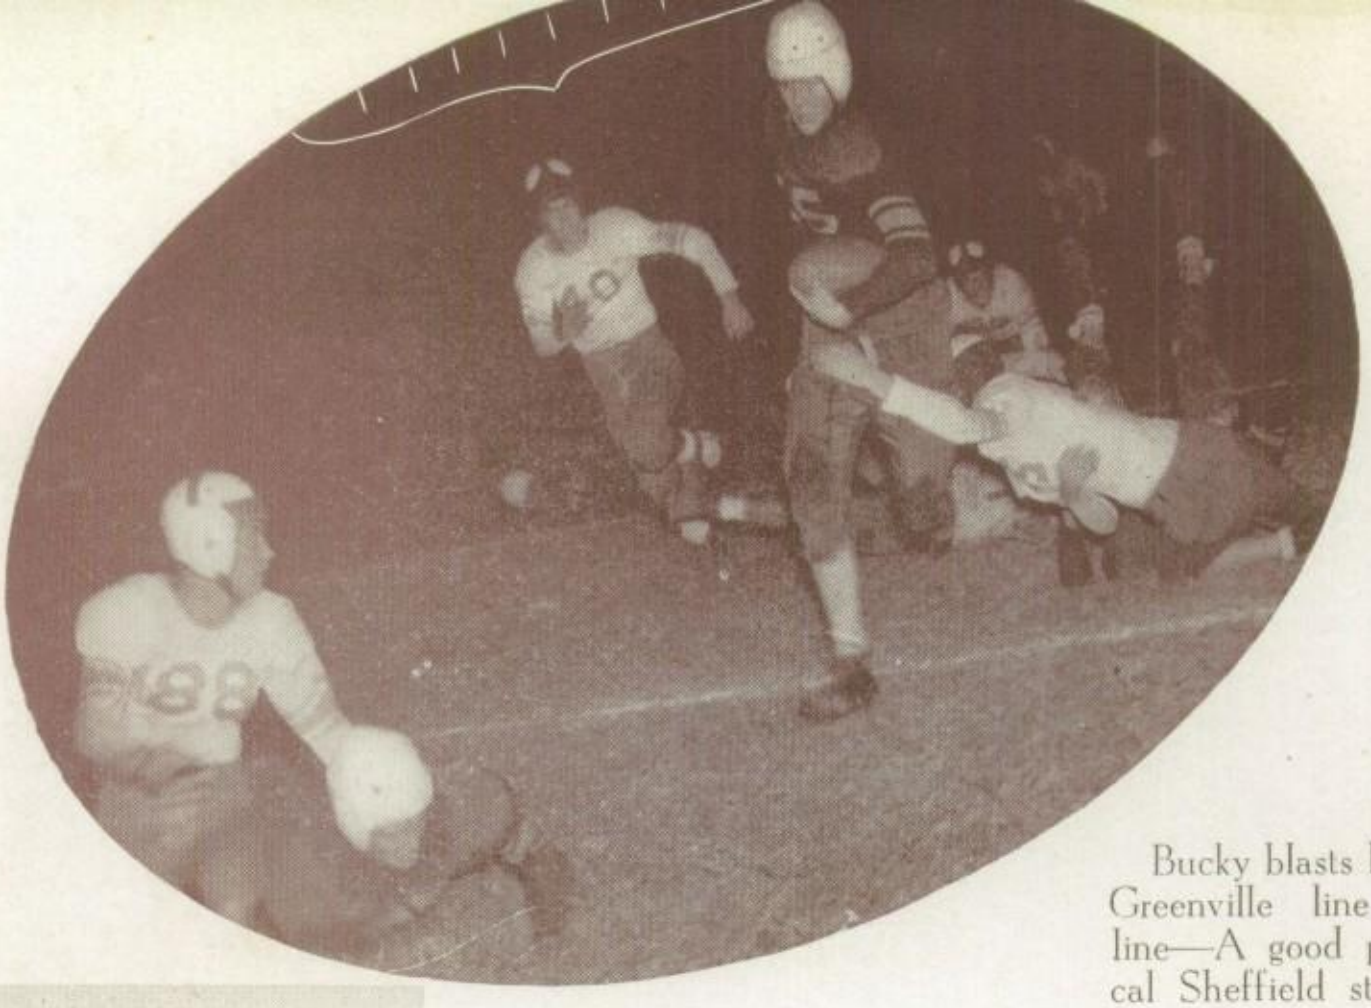
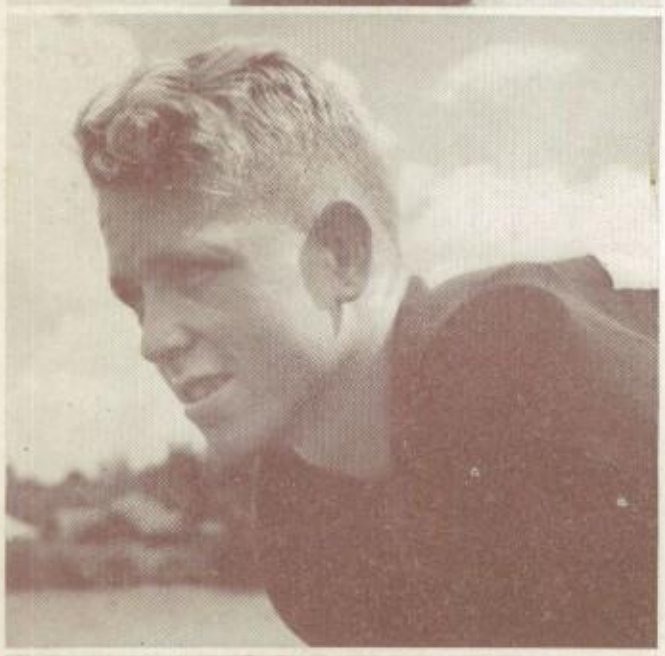
The Wildcats opened the defense of their district title by thoroughly beating the Sherman Bearcats. The first time Paris got the ball they marched 65 yards in six plays with Sheffield scoring. From there it was a matter of how many points the Cats wanted to make. All told the versatile Wildcats ran and passed for seven scores—three by Sheffield, and one each by Abbett, Coker, Hudson, and Antoine. Extra points were kicked by Morrow and Hartline. The entire Wildcat line played an outstanding game on defense and opened gaping holes for their backs to run through.



Coker struts his stuff against the Gainesville Leopards with a nice gain off right tackle.



Bucky blasts his way through the Greenville line to the four-yard line—A good picture of the typical Sheffield stampede.



Hard Luck . . . . Cats

Paris 32 Sulphur Springs 0

The Wildcats splashed to an easy 32-0 win over the Sulphur Springs Wildcats for victory number 5. On the fifth play of the game Big Bucky Sheffield rambled 25 yards for the initial score. Shortly afterwards he lateraled to tackle John Barton for six more points; the play was good for 27 yards. The third T.D. came when Coker followed good blocking 47 yards to pay dirt. The final two scores came on block kicks; End Howard Brazile crashed through to block one and scooped up the bounding ball to score; the other kick was blocked by End Billy Graves and covered by Brazile for the score. Paris reserves began entering the game in the first period, and the entire second team played the last three quarters.

Paris 0 Denison 2

On the night of October 23, 1942, the Wildcats were toppled from the throne which they had held for two years by a fine Denison team. The Wildcats were not at full strength for this all-important struggle, for Quarterback Luke Abbett had a badly sprained ankle; however, all the Wildcats played their hearts out in one of the closest and best played games of the season. The Wildcats held slightly the upper hand in all departments of play until in the fourth quarter with Cats backed up on their own goal line, a bad selection of plays resulted in a Denison safety and cost Paris the district title, 0-2. Another bad break of the game came when an 88-yard run for a touchdown by Coker was called back. Every member of the team played like champions, but it was simply not in the books for the Wildcats to win.

Paris 53 Texarkana 7

Some 2500 Appreciation Night fans saw the Wildcats bounce back from the Denison game to slaughter the Texarkana Tigers, 53-7. The first two times Sheffield got his hands on the ball he scored with runs of 35 to 56 yards. From there on the Tigers were buried beneath a barrage of Wildcat touchdowns. Buck scored again to lead the scoring parade with three T. D.'s, followed by J. C. Coker with 2, and Abshire, Hudson, and Gibson with one each. The extra points were added by Jones and Morrow. Only once during the game did the Tigers threaten, and that resulted in their touchdown late in the fourth quarter.

Paris 56 Forest Avenue, Dallas 0

The Wildcats took the field against the Forest Avenue Lions determined to avenge the defeat handed Paris by the Lions in 1939. This defeat was the last time the Wildcats had been beaten on their home field. From the start it was obvious that the weak Lions were in for a bad night. The Wildcat regulars ran through, over, and around their foes for six teedees before turning it over to the reserves who scored twice. Scores for the evening were made by Sheffield 2, Hudson 2, Gibson 2, Coker and Boswell one each. When the final whistle blew, the scoreboard read: Wildcats 56, Visitors 0.

Paris 54 Gainesville 0

Displaying the best form of the season, the Wildcats humiliated the Gainesville Leopards with an avalanche of touchdowns. Scoring on the first play of the game on a beautiful 68-yard run by Sheffield, the Wildcats ran and passed for 8 teedees and gained the amazing total of 508 yards. With the line led by Jones, Morrow, Barton, Abshire, Hicks, and Barnett functioning perfectly, the Wildcat backs broke loose for many long scoring sprints. Besides Sheffield's jaunt, other touchdown runs were made by Hudson 2, Gibson 2, Abbett 2, and Jimmie Hollis 1. The Wildcats were definitely on the beam that night, and every Cat turned in a splendid game which resulted in the worst defeat handed a Gainesville team in many years.

Paris 52 Bonham 0

Going into the final game determined to write a successful finish to their season, the Wildcats easily defeated the Bonham Warriors. The first time the Cats got the ball Hudson skipped 33 yards for 6 points, and shortly afterwards he again carried over from the 3. The third tally was made by Gibson; next it was turned over to Sheffield, who roared over twice before injuring his knee. The final touchdowns were added by Abbett, Boswell, and another one by Gibson. L. V. Morrow added two extra points to bring his total for the season to 17. Jones added one to raise his total to 11.

Although the Wildcats were nosed out of the district title, this year's edition, led by All-State Bucky Sheffield, proved to be one of the most versatile teams that has ever worn the blue and white for Paris High. At full strength the '42 Wildcats had one of the best teams in Texas.

Second Row: Kelley, Ross, Abelow, Stewart, Quinlan, Barnes, Miles, Gibson, Matney, Smith, Hunter

Coach: Marshall Vanderburg

Due to transportation difficulties neither the B Team nor the Super Nubs played a regular schedule this past season; however, every Frday night prior to the varsity game one of these teams played an inter-squad game. Only once during the year did either team play outside competition. On October 9, our B squad was defeated by the Cooper High Bulldogs, 25-0.

Special praise should be given this group of boys who came out faithfully rain or shine, for they worked harder and longer than the Wildcats but received no publicity nor applause for their efforts. From these boys Paris is hoping to build a team in the future which will win back that trophy.

Outstanding among these teams this year were Newell, Floyd, Wetherbee, Ross, Thielman, McGee, White, Cothran, Stinson, Margraves, and Humphreys.

Much praise is also due Coach Barnett and Coach Vanderburg for the long hours that they spent teaching these boys the techniques and fundamentals of football.

Our Fighting Forces . . .

Army

From village and city, from farm, office, and factory, hundreds of thousands of young Americans have been selected for military service without distinction of class, creed, or color. The aim has been to choose those American men who have the best physical and mental qualifications to become efficient soldiers in the United States Army. There is nothing basically new in this American policy of universal liability to military service. It is as old as our free nation. On July 18, 1775, a month after the Battle of Bunker Hill and a year before the Declaration of Independence, the Continental Congress recommended "to the inhabitants of the United English Colonies that able-bodied, effective men, between 16 and 50 years of age, be formed into companies of militia." In 1792, 17 years later, the Congress of the United States adopted a law, closely patterned after the 1775 recommendation, fixing the age limits for military service at 18 and 45.

Today in a world agonized by men made mad with the lust of conquest, the United States of America stands free, strong, and unafraid. Once again we are preparng to meet a challenge to the American way of life.

The foot soldier is as much the backbone of the Army as he was in former wars. But today he is more versatile, is better armed, and moves faster than ever. The Garand semiautomatic rifle gives him several times the fire-power he had with the excellent Springfield. There is no job in the Army that demands more initiative or quicker thinking than that of the rifleman in the open warfare of today. Over long distances, today's infantrymen "march at 40 miles an hour in sturdy Army trucks. New methods of attack offer a wide variety of jobs for specialists. The air-borne Infantry, flying in big transport planes, will be a powerful attacking force in this war.

The great nation we have built, our high standards of living, our political and religious liberties are an inspiration and an ideal to free men everywhere. All of these rights will be preserved by the United States Army.

Navy

The present United States Navy was preceded by several provincial navies and a Continental Navy which had their origin in the Revolutionary War. The true forerunner of the United States Navy was the Continental Navy, authorized by the Continental Congress and operated by a committee of the Congress and then by a Board of Admiralty including members of Congress. The principal accomplishment of the Navy was the victory of John Paul Jones in the sinking of the Bon Homme Richard over H. M. S. Serapis. This victory of Jones was a priceless heritage to the future United States Navy. In 1798, Congress created a Navy Department under a Secretary of the Navy. The successes with France in 1798 and against Tripoli in 1803-1805 completed the formation of the Navy. The naval victories in the War of 1812 established the confidence of the people. The work done by the Navy in the Cvil War will always be remembered. No major naval actions occurred after the American entry into World War I, but the American Navy laid mines, escorted convoys, and transported army stores and soldiers to France.

The Navy is usually thought of as our first line of defense. These Navy men who have been returned to civilian life have been physically developed by correct exercises and have been taught useful trades, self-control, obedience, loyalty, and patriotism. In national disasters it has always been the Navy which has offered assistance to populations of stricken areas. Many international policies advocated by the United States conflict with interests of other nations, and it is mainly the naval strength of the United States which has insured their recognition by the world.

In time of war and in time of peace this branch of the Armed Forces is the best guarantee the nation has that its honor and interest will not be neglected, and it is the United States Navy that offers the best insurance for peace that can be devised by human ingenuity.

"Anchors Aweigh"

Anchors aweigh, my boys;
Anchors aweigh.
Farewell to college joys
We sail at break of day day day day!
Through our last night on shore
Drink to the foam.
Until we meet once more,
Here's wishing you a happy voyage home.
Heave aho there, sailor,
Ev're body drink up while you may.
Heave aho, there, sailor,
For you're gonna sail at break of day.
Drink away, drink away for you sail at break of day, hey!
Sail, navy, down the bay,
Anchors aweigh.
We'll never change our course.
We're from the U.S.A. ay ay ay.
We've got a job to do
Over the sea
Anchors aweigh today
As we go sailing on to victory.

. . . Basketball

With five lettermen back from the 1942 quintet, prospects for the forthcoming season were fairly bright; however, due to travel restrictions, basketball was carried on on a limited scale. The regular district schedule was dropped in favor of a tournament held in Bonham, February 12 and 13. From this tournament Sherman emerged the district champion.

Starting slowly in warm-up games, the Cats did not hit their stride until the last two games of the district tournament. The Wildcats dropped four straight games to Lamar County Clubs before winning one. We were beaten by Deport 44-37, Cunningham twice, 39-31 and 46-33, and Midway 40-23; before we finally entered the win column with a 26-12 victory over Chicota.

The Wildcats entered the district's double-elimination as the "dark horse" and were promptly beaten by the Champion Bearcats of Sherman, 41-16. However, the Cats came back the next day to eke out a close 27-24 victory over our ace rivals, the Denison Yellow Jackets, and, then in the afternoon, lost a hard fought game to the Bonham Warriors, 35-28, to be eliminated from the district race. Wildcat Guard Roy McFadden received the honor of being placed on the coaches' and sports writers' All-District team, which was selected at the end of the tournament.

Physical Education

Keep Fit For Victory

To build strong bodies and to better fit the boys and girls for the trying days ahead is the main purpose of the physical education department of our school. The instructors of this course realize the great need for healthy young people today and give expert instruction in football, basketball, tennis, baseball, tumbling, posture, and personal hygiene. The curriculum of this department has increased considerably in the past years. Besides being interesting, the instructors have succeeded in making the course helpful to all students.

Every student in Paris High School is invited to take part in some phase of physical training. Sophomores and freshmen are required to have scheduled periods during the week for this instruction.

Our Morale Builders . . .

Even though the war conditions have handicapped several of our extra-curricular activities, there are still a sufficient number offered to the students of Paris High School.

The most popular of these activities is athletics. For the past six years P. H. S. has produced winning teams in most sports. The football squad has been greatly praised for its power and winning ability; basketball, our mid-winter sport, holds an important position in our althletic program; our tennis team has established a fine record by winning the district for the past four years. The less experienced boys and girls are allowed to participate in a B squad in each of these sports. Aside from the fact that athletics provides enjoyment for the students, it creates good sportsmanship, cooperation, alert minds, and sound bodies.

The clubs which are sponsored by various faculty members have more student participants than does any other activity. Regular meetings are held, and inspirational programs are given, as an aid to the guidance of the students.

In the field of foreign languages there are German, Spanish, and Latin Clubs, the latter being the largest and oldest club in our high school. The science department includes the General Science Club, which also has an extensive membership, and two new organizations, the Physics Club and the Chemistry Club.

The Aeronautics Club and the F.F.A. have attracted many boys, as they are not only interesting but also useful. For those interested in mechanical drawing and liberal arts, the Arts Club is available to further the interest created in the classroom. The X-Cello Club stimulates the girls' interest in the home and its problems. Clever plays which the students enjoy throughout the year are presented by the Speech Club. The Hi-Y, which is a nationally-known organization and a branch of the Y.M.C.A., is a medium of friendship among the upperclassmen of P. H. S. It is the aspiration of most students to become a member of the National Honor Society, for it is composed of the honor students from the junior and senior classes.

To increase our interest in the literary field, Paris High is active in Interscholastic League contests. In the previous years our students have competed with pupils from other schools in this state; but due to the rationing of tires and gasoline, this year a program of intramurals was carried out in ready writing, typing, and debate. Our extra-curricular activities were correlated with the war effort, as we tried to do our share in connection with our activities. By being active in these events a student gains much knowledge and skill which will be useful to him in the future years. He learns the finer points of writing and speaking and readily puts them into use.

Paris High School is proud of its music department, consisting of the band, Choral Club, and orchestra. The Blue Blazes, our seventy-five piece band, has made a name for itself by its performances at each home game. The talented Choral Club has presented many programs for civic organizations as well as school organizations. The fine orchestra has cooperated with the band and Choral Club in presenting concerts during the summer as well as the winter months.

Another important phase of extra-curricular activity is that of publishing The Owl. The staff which is made up of ten members from the senior class is assisted by a number of underclassmen. We feel that our yearbook is a powerful force in education because it affords motivation for the study of English and good writing, creative art, photography, and business courses.

Through this brief summary we have given you the students' eye-view of the various phases of activity outside the schoolroom. We have also tried to show you that even through the war years of '42 and '43, the students of Paris High School have had a broad field of extra-curricular activity from which to choose.

Our major projects for the year were our observance of Latin Week and one printed issue of our magazine, Hodie et Heri. This issue was printed and distributed during Latin Week to the club members and future Latin students. The number of issues for this year was limited to two because of shortage of materials. The first one was in February and was mimeographed.

We give to the needy . . . .

Our Junior Consul, Kathryn Humphreys, loads Ben Mooring up for another trip to the car that carried our Christmas offering to the Red Cross office for distribution to the poor. At Christmas time members of Romani Hodierni always contribute generously to those who have less than they.

. . . The Language Of The Elite

The pace-maker for members and activities is the Latin Club of Paris High School. Each month a meeting was held, and interesting and educational programs were given. After the Christmas meeting, a food contribution, which helped five families have a happier holiday season, was given to the Red Cross. Numerous old Roman customs were carried out at the New Year's meeting. During the year the members learned to sing Christmas Carols, patriotic songs, and songs for fun in Latin and English. Several English playlets were presented to show the importance of Latin in the English language.

This organization is proud of the fact that 83 of its 133 active members, along with 13 students who have already completed two years of Latin, are also members of the Junior Classical League, a national organization of all students interested in the Classics. Sally Freeman, one of our second year Latin students, is vice-president of the Texas State Junior Classical League Organization.

Our major project for the year was the purchase of another twenty-five dollar war bond to add to the war bond purchased by the 1942 club. It is the purpose of the club to help win the war by lending their money to Uncle Sam. After the war the money will be used to further the aims and the ambition of the general science students.

Doing our share to help Uncle Sam . . . .

President Joe Garrett and Treasurer Callie Ann Ayres admire the bond that this year's club added to the collection owned by the General Science Club. The display in the foreground, showing the difference in an insulated and an uninsulated house, was made by Sammy Hunter.

. . . Knowledge Being Born

The programs of the General Science Club, which meets the second Wednesday of each month, correlate with the daily classroom work of the general science students. An all-school tacky party was given by this active club in December, and in the spring a party for the members of the club was held. The victory-minded members of the club invested wisely when they used the proceeds from these parties to buy a $25.00 war bond. During the year two field trips were made by the students to the Lamar Creamery and to the Hinkle Lumber Company. Various members of the club have contributed valuable projects which will be used in future general science classes. Among these will be found an absorbed and reflected energy apparatus, a planetarium, and various woodwork models. These and other projects are on display in the general science laboratory.

A moving picture in color, representing travels in Mexico, shown by Miss Virginia Gervers provided delightful entertainment for the members of the Spanish Club at one of the programs of the year. Such customs as the representation of the nativity scene and the pinata were depicted when the enthusiastic members presented a Christmas play. A Pan-American Day program was offered, as well as a play in English with a Latin-American background. The annual banquet given the last week of school by the second year Spanish students to honor the seniors who are in the club was financed by the proceeds from this play.

The Senior Arden Players consists of the students who have completed one year of speech and those who have taken part in some play presented in Paris High School; members of the Junior Arden Players are the first year speech students.

A melodrama, "Driven from Home," was given by the willing members of the speech department for the U.S.O., and a play was presented at Camp Maxey for the enjoyment of the soldiers stationed there. One major production, "Fly Away Home," was offered during the year.

Physics has its moments . . . .

Bill Sperry and James Killebrew illustrate the turning effect of forces—that is, their moments.

To promote scientific interest of the physics students is the purpose of this newly organized club. Since the election of officers in October, the members have met the last week of each six weeks to take part in educational programs concerning x-ray, sound, the velocity of light, and other interesting topics. The club brought the school year to a splendid end with a picnic in May. Thirty boys and one girl composed the membership of this fast progressing club.

Twice every six weeks the members of this new club met to study aviation in all possible ways. Each boy entered enthusiastically into all the discussions of the Army, Navy, Marine, and Coast Guard Air Corps and lived up to the club motto: "Learn more about aviation." The different types of planes and the active part that the Air Force is taking in the present war were topics of especial interest to the members at two of the regular meetings. They relaxed from the study of aviation long enough to sponsor a party in February.

The making of attractive war posters was the organization's major project for the year, and a scrap metal and rubber drive was sponsored by the patriotic members of the club. At the regular meetings the lives and works of well-known artists in all fields were studied. Gala times included a Valentine's Day party in February, an informal gathering in March, an April Fool's party in April, and, as always, the big annual picnic at the end of the second semester.

The outstanding purpose of this educational club is to stimulate interest in the art of homemaking, as well as to encourage a broader view of home economics. An effort is made to gain assurance and poise in a variety of social situations, to promote the wise use of leisure time, and to set standards for the democratic sharing of experiences.

Helpful meetings were held the second Wednesday of each month in the auditorium, and interesting programs which had been planned by the officers of the club were presented.

The F.F.A. is composed of chartered State associations which, in turn, are made up of local chapters situated in high schools having departments of vocational agriculture. The primary aim of the Future Farmers of America is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship.

The projects of the local chapter were centered this year around the Food for Victory Program. Realizing that food must be produced in abundant quantities if we are to feed ourselves, our Armed Forces, the Armed Forces of our allies, and the civilian population, the members excelled in the production of vital poultry, pork, beef, dairy products, soy beans, peanuts, and home gardens.

The Paris High School chapter of the national Hi-Y organization met on September 10, 1942, for the first time with its new president, Gene Hudson, presiding. In October Mr. Sam Freeman, one of the sponsors, entertained the members with a wiener roast at his lovely home. Two dances highlighted the November activities of this organization, and on December 18, 1942, an all-stag dance was sponsored by the Hi-Y. The most outstanding activity was their annual Christmas banquet and dance. This gala affair was held this year in the main dining room of the Gibraltar Hotel. The social year of this active organization ended with a party honoring the sponsors.

Society . . . You Don't Have To Be Drafted To Join This Outfit

The National Honor Society has many objectives in view. While creating an enthusiasm for scholarship is the underlying intention, it is not the only purpose of the organization. The society wished to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students as well.

Since the organization in 1932, one hundred and twenty boys and two hundred and sixty-eight girls have had the privilege of being elected into this organization. In the spring of each year the highest five per cent of the junior class is inducted into the organization. The following year ten per cent of the senior class is initiated into this society at the end of the first semester. Among the eleven members admitted in their junior year were the 1943 Senior Class secretary, officers and members of the Latin, Speech, Snapshot, and Chemistry Clubs, Owl staff, several Junior Rotarians, and leading members of the various clubs.

To attain this recognition a high standard of achievement must be maintained to the very end. To be eligible one must meet the requirements of service, leadership, character, and scholarship. To qualify for service one must render cheerfully and enthusiastically service to the school. Leadership may be interpreted as showing initiative in promoting high school activities. Character, the composite of all the common virtues, is indispensable to the finest young womanhood and manhood of America.

The officers of the National Honor Society confer with their sponsor, Miss Bishop, about plans for the initiation of the new members.

The traditional ceremony of initiating the new members begins with speeches made by the four officers representing the requirements of the honor society—service, leadership, character, and scholarship. The other students seen on the stage are the eleven who were inducted into the society last year.

Mr. Justiss administers the oath to the students who have been chosen to become members of the society. Their eligibility must be approved by the faculty before they can take this membership oath. This annual ceremony is quite impressive to the entire student body.

To identify the members of this society, a beautiful pin, the emblem of the national society is worn and highly esteemed by all. Thus the organization creates an enthusiasm for scholarship among those who have not yet been awakened to the importance of the complete development of their powers.

Paris High School Band . . .

Under the dexterous supervision of Mr. Floyd Weger, the Paris High School Band has become one of the outstanding bands in the state. Even though the war and gas rationing has prevented the band from performing at out-of-town football games, its seventy-five members presented clever maneuvers at the games in Paris during the 1942 football season.

The band is now functioning as a symphonic band playing a series of Victory Concerts, which are held in the gymnasium. These concerts are open to the public with the admission being the purchase of any amount of bonds or stamps. The band's contribution to the men in service, $3,750, was given to our postmaster as a result of the first Victory Concert. They have also made several trips to entertain the men at Camp Maxey. This organization is called upon to appear in civic parades, and it aids a great deal in keeping up the morale of the people in these trying times. Each student looks forward to the assembly programs in which the band appears, for it makes each one a memorable occasion.

It was with much regret that we told Mr. Weger good-bye when he entered the Armed Forces, but we were quite fortunate to have his wife, Mrs. Weger, to carry on his work; and we can certainly say that the band has steadily progressed under her capable leadership.

Each member of the band is to be congratulated for the time and effort spent in making every presentation a success. Hats off to the blue-and-white uniformed music makers!

As drum major Patti Bess has shown her ability by leading and directing the band in many difficult maneuvers. To the drum major and majorettes much credit is due for the time spent in developing their talent and for their ability to make each performance more colorful.

Mixed Chorus . . . Harmonizers

The Mixed Chorus of Paris High School is recognized as one of the most outstanding high school choral groups in this state. It not only functions as a club but also meets as a regular class. Under the careful and artistic direction of Mr. Weger, the club has achieved a high distinction for itself as well as the entire school. Before a student can become a member of the Mixed Chorus, his ability must be approved by Mr. Weger. This group has performed for various churches and civic organizations in Paris and has given a number of concerts for the men in service at Camp Maxey.

The Paris High School Orchestra is truly an asset to the student activities of the school. It is a talented organization which provides fine training for the boys and girls who are interested in a musical career. The foundation for the present orchestra was laid last year when the director, Mr. Weger, started seventy students on string instruments. The orchestra is now made up of a select group of those seventy. The students who were not chosen to participate in the orchestra have continued to study in small classes and will be admitted to the orchestra as they become proficient instrument players. The students gain knowledge not only through their classes but also through giving numerous concerts.

Due to the shortage of films and bulbs, the club's activities were curtailed after the first semester.

The spirit which was shown by the Wildcat rooters this year was due largely to the excellent leadership and co-operation of the cheer leaders. Under the diligent supervision of Miss Mildred Coffey, Bonnie Ruth, Marion, Jack, Kathryn, Kyle, and Bobby showed genuine enthusiasm in their job. At an assembly program on the Thursday before each game the cheer leaders led the loyal student body in the school songs and yells. Rose Marie Ball, Mary Dee Lattimore, and Walter Lewis were selected by the sophomores to assist the junior members, Kathryn, Kyle, and Bobby next year. During the year Walter moved, and the sophomores elected Donald Booth to take his place.

Marines

"Marine Hymn"

From the halls of Montezuma,
To the shores of Tripoli,
We fight our country's battles,
On the land as on the sea.
Admiration of the nation,
We're the finest ever seen,
And we glory in the title,
Of "United States Marines."

Our flag's unfurled to ev'ry breeze,
From dawn to setting sun,
We have fought in ev'ry clime and place,
Where we could take a gun;
In the snow of far off northern lands,
And in sunny tropic scenes,
You will always find us on the job,
The United States Marines.

Here's health to you and to our Corps,
Which we are proud to serve;
In many a strife we've fought for life,
And never lost our nerve;
If the Army and the Navy,
Ever look on heaven's scenes,
They will find the streets are guarded by
The United States Marines.

Your War-Time Owl . . .

It has been our aim in producing a War-Time Owl to help you remember '42 and '43. Now that our job is finished we hope that its completion fulfills the goal toward which we have worked to the satisfaction of each and every student of Paris High School.

We, the staff of '43, extend our sincere gratitude to the faculty, Mr. Chamness, Mr. Justiss, Turner's Studio, Southwestern Engraving Co., Peerless Printing Co., The Paris News, and the student body for helping us make this publication possible. To each member of the staff I want to express my appreciation for his splendid cooperation and assistance throughout the year.

Above all, we are greatly indebted to Miss Hankins for her untiring effort to make this book a success.

Patti Bess Lummus

Editor-in-Chief

As Business Manager of The 1943 Owl, I would like to acknowledge my appreciation to our advertisers for their aid and cooperation in making this book possible.

To each staff member and each staff assistant is due the credit for the most successful circulation campaign in the history of The Owl. 745 copies of The Owl is indeed a record for a school of less than 1000 enrolled!

Material and labor shortage caused by the war required more effort on the part of the staff and sponsor than ever before. But Paris High School students wanted a yearbook, and here is the result of twelve months of hard work on the part of your Owl Staff. We hope you like it.

Bonnie Ruth Majors

Business Manager

Efficient, dependable, capable—that's our sponsor, Miss Martha Hankins. She is seen here as she is seen most often—working to further the advancement of The Owl. With her experience and unending vigilance, she has led us through many difficulties. Under her training each staff member has increased his literary, business, and journalistic knowledge. We honor her because of her careful guidance and unfailing enthusiasm at all times.

Basic Activities

Individual photography campaign that started with registration and resulted in 777 class pictures out of 963 students enrolled.

Figuring, cutting, and mounting of all panels for the annual—a three months' job and several hundred dollars' savings.

Keeping business records and large sums of money handled accurately and with care.

A record breaking circulation campaign with 745 copies printed.

$1,000 advertising quota successfully obtained. (This amount essential if you have this type of book at your regular price.)

Typing of dummy for printer. (work)

Proofing of dummy and reproof of every word for the printer. (more work)

All photography is student work except classes and faculty.

These are a few shots to show you our organized effort on The 1943 Owl.

1. Tommy Stewart, Sally Freeman, Janet Alter, Margie Bell, and Melba Woodard not only worked with circulation and photography but also sold ads. Here they are shown checking in with the business manager.

2. Advertising is essential to the success of the book. Here Patti, Jane, Nellie Jeanne, and Bonnie Ruth listen to Valria explain the importance of advertising in our book to Mr. J. C. DeShong, one of our advertisers.

3. Mariwynn Alford, Patsy Hooker, Jimmie Hollis, and Marilyn Peltz worked faithfully checking students in and out of the building for the picture making. They also worked with the circulation.

4. Here we see most of the 52 students who helped us break the circulation record.

The backbone of an annual is photography . . . .

Words cannot express our appreciation to Charles Davis for his help with our photography. Here we see Charles explaining some details of photography to Joe Teague and Priscilla Scott. Joe, a junior, has helped a great deal with our snaps; and Priscilla, a sophomore, is learning to use the Speed Graphic.

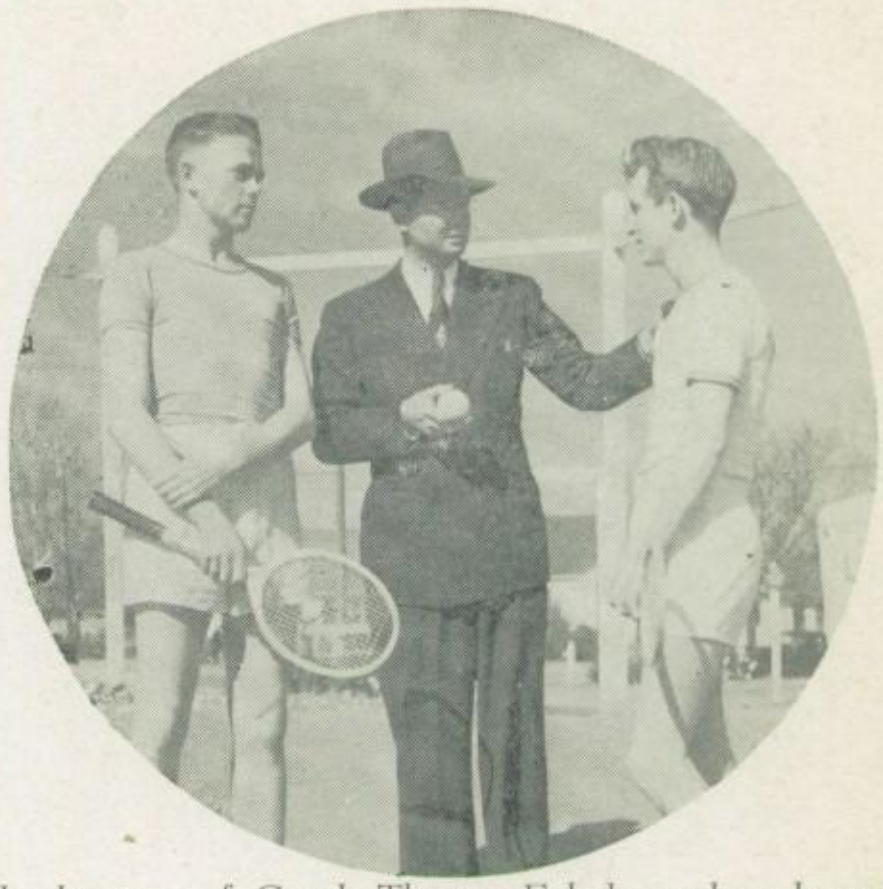
Our Racket-Swingers . . . Tennis

The District Champions get some pointers . . . .



Coach Echols talks over the fine points of the game with James Killebrew and A. L. Dawson before the Regional Meet at Longview.

Lack of travel facilities by no means dampened the spirits of the P. H. S. Netters, who for four consecutive years have copped the District Tennis Crown. They had only one match with outside competition, in which Paris High downed Denison 5-2, and intramurals to prepare them for the Regional Meet, since no District Meet was held.

The P. H. S. Netters were eliminated in the Regional Meet at Longview in April, but all three boys advanced to the finals. The girls were handicapped when Virginia Reeves, number one girls' singles player, suffered a broken collar bone the day before the Regional Meet. Our team was the only tennis team to represent District 13 this year in the Regional Meet.

The racket-swingers have steadily improved under the able direction of Coach Thomas Echols, and each one is to be highly praised for the long hours of practice spent every afternoon in the gymnasium.

Our Fighting Forces . . .

Marines

From 1775 to the present war United States Marines have been making glorious history, and a great deal has been written and said about America's oldest Armed Force. Conspicuous in their history is the remarkable march in 1803 of General Eaton and his men from Alexandria to Derne, nearly six hundred miles across the desert of Northern Africa, which resulted in the capture of native fortifications. Here the Tripolitan flag was hauled down, and for the first time in the history of the Nation the flag of the Republic was hoisted on a fortress in the old world. Later in the bloody fight between the Shannon and the Chesapeake many Marines were killed or mortally wounded; and it was Captain Lawrence, commander of the Chesapeake in this battle, who first uttered the immortal expression, "Don't give up the ship!" Many other campaigns and skirmishes, too numerous to mention, between that time and the time of the first World War saw the Marines in action as has always been their tradition. Many tales are told of how the Marines "staged landing parties" throughout World War I at such well-known battles as St. Mihiel, Aisne-Marne, Meuse-Argonne, and Chateau-Theirry.

Coming down to the present war, we are all familiar with the glorious stands made by Marines at Wake Island, Guam, Midway, the Philippines, and countless other locations. Everyone knows the Marines! They are the fellows who search out the high spots of adventure. They find it all over the world, for the Marines travel enough to know adventure when they see it. In the far-off countries of the earth there are United States Marines storing up health and memories that will last them to the end of the chapter.

Variety is the real spice of a Marine's life. All through the history of the Marine Corps there are examples of his versatility, trustworthiness, singleness and tenacity of purpose, discipline, courage, faithfulness, and self-sacrifice. As long as this country has battles to fight, world policing to do, or honor to be upheld, our country's fathers will always "Tell it to the Marines!"

Air Corps

The Air Corps, the most recent branch of our Armed Forces, is fast becoming a most vital branch. Our Nation's future depends upon command of the air. The future of freedom and liberty is in the hands of our youth. One did not need a very great imagination in 1903, when Orville and Wilbur Wright made the first successful flight in an aeroplane, to realize that it would be possible to obtain a great deal of essential information concerning an enemy by flying over his positions. Prior to the outbreak of World War I, none of the belligerents had devoted much attention to air combat. The only duty of an aeroplane was reconnaissance; however, by 1914 a few countries had military aeroplanes. Air fighting and organized bombing raids developed in 1915. In 1916 the first aeroplane equipped with machine guns was produced; however, during World War I extensive use of the aeroplane was not carried out. Since then the United States has been engaged in the greatest aircraft production program ever undertaken by any country.

The bombardiers are one classification of flying officers. The bombardier's duty, once he becomes a participant in a combat flight, is performed in a matter of seconds—but the most important seconds of the flight. At the crucial moment when the bomber reaches its objective, the bombardier takes over from the pilot. Upon his skill in landing his bombs on the target depends the success of the entire mission. The aviation cadet assigned to bombardier training receives nine weeks' instruction in fundamentals, twelve in specialized bombardier training, and five in gunnery—a total of twenty-six weeks.

With times as they are, we must press the enemy back behind their own borders, and there defeat them so decisively that they can never again attempt to impose their wills and ways of life on a people who cherish liberty above all things—a people always willing to lay down their lives to preserve their freedom. It is this goal which the Air Corps has in view; so let us "Keep 'em Flying!"

SUMMER

Air Corps

"Air Corps Song"

Off we go into the wild blue yonder;
Climbing high into the sun;
Here they come, zooming to meet our thunder,
At 'em boys,
Give 'er the gun
(Give 'er the gun!)
Down we dive spouting our flame from under,
Off with one hell-uv-a roar!
We live in fame
Or go down in flame
SHOUT!
Nothing'll stop the Army Air Corps.

Off we go into the wild sky yonder,
Keep the wings level and true;
If you'd live to be a gray-haired wonder
Keep the nose
Out of the blue!
(Out of the blue, boy!)
Flying men, guarding the nation's border
We'll be there, followed by more!
In echelon
We carry on
SHOUT!
Nothing'll stop the Army Air Corps.

Summer . . . We enjoy our vacation

1. Summer school certainly seems dull if this picture can be offered as evidence. 2. Miss Reeves and Mr. Chamness work even in the summer. 3. A typical summer scene—pigtails and cokes. 4. Sweets dish out sweets (sugar rationing). 5. More fun than a classroom . . . how about it, teachers? 6. Boys, let's get sick! 7. Paris Hi's representation at the Quarterback's Barbecue.

"WILDCATS"

Out in the Pacific those Marines and Army and Navy Fighters are making the Japs think that every American is a fighting "Wildcat." On the other side it's the same thing. Many of these men are old time Texas Wildcats from Paris High School, and many of this year's graduates will soon fight for their country. To all go our wishes and prayers for their safety until our country emerges victorious.

Dear Betty Jo.
This year we had a mutual "foe"; Miss Sailors and Miss Riggs. It was a tough fight but here we are. You are a swell kid.
Yours,
Albertmichel
